

Cold War Historical Investigation: Student Activity
Historical Investigation Graphic Organizer

Directions: Use the graphic organizer below to investigate the social, political and economic factors that caused the end of the Cold War. Use sources found on the Historical Investigation Resources table, or conduct your own research.

What social, political and economic factors caused the end of the Cold War?

Sources	Who created this source of information? When?	What was the purpose in creating this source of information? Who is the likely audience?	What is the creator's point of view? How does the creator use language to present their argument?	What information from this source helps you answer the focus question?